Crash Landing!

Far Far above the earth in the year 2415 in a city called Mycilium there was a boy called “STILTS YOU FORGOT TO FEED T-BONE”, yeah, that's his Dad shouting, he's General Mc Claw, and I know what you're thinking if his Dads the general then Stilts must be very powerful... But he's definitely not that. Stilts is a weak young elf with wings, small horns, bird legs and a big imagination so not the best heir to the throne. He has two pets, T-bone, who is a ball-puppy with sharp fangs and tiny wings, and the other pet is a lot fiercer, his name is Raiko Bolt, a ferocious lightning dragon with tremendous strength and speed. General Mc Claw is a fighter with an eagle head, tiger arms, a gorilla torso and bird legs. His mother Raphel is a lot simpler being an elf with wings.

Stilts went down on the elevator to his Mum and Dad in the kitchen and fed T-bone, (half a packet of monster crunch and 5 lumps of squarly.) “Go out to the mall and I’ll send you a hologram with what I want.” said his Mum. So he went down to the mall on his hoverboard to get his Mum's supplies. “Oof” said Odo, as he got hit by the board. Odo is Stilts' best friend and a young wizard in training. “Where are you going in such a rush?” asked Odo, “Oh sorry what were you saying? I was thinking about butterflies and rainbows” exclaimed Stilts. “Oh very well so before you go day-dreaming again TELL ME WHERE YOU ARE GOING IN A RUSH?” shouted Odo. “Off to the mall to get some supplies” said Stilts. “Ok don't let me get in your way, and here's a butterfly to go with you” said Odo. He tried to conjure up a butterfly. !POOF! Odo, Stilts and a couple of civilians went flying backwards and there was a seed in the middle of them all. “Oh” said Odo sheepishly. “I thought that made a butterfly”. “Well I'll be off then” said Stilts flying off quickly.

Half an hour later as he was filling up his hoverboard with fuel, he felt a sharp earthquake and a sinking feeling. “Wasn't me” said a nearby civilian. “I don't think it was anyone” said Stilts. “The island's sinking.” “Don't be silly” said everybody around him. Stilts rushed home and jumped straight on T-bone. “Oops” said Stilts “Wrong pet” and jumped on to Raiko. They flew off the island and looked at it from the side. Sure enough the island was sinking. He flew back as fast as he could, went to the radio station and shunted the presenter of the 7 show away and started speaking. “Some of you might not know me and some of you might but you all can see me. So you can believe me, the island is sinking and soon we'll crash land into the thing below us and if you don't believe me then go check it out yourself. We need to go under the island and work together and push it back up. COME ON,

we can do this together.”

So they all went down riding dragons, ball-dogs, and giant butterflies. “1 2 3 PUSH” shouted Stilts. They all pushed and the island started floating again. “3 cheers for Stilts” shouted Odo quietly. “Hip Hip Hooray Hip Hip Hooray Hip Hip Hooray.” And they all lived happily ever after.
