The Day Ireland Made History

On the 20th of October 2015 Ireland made history. This story is the highlights of what happened. The match will be starting in half an hour and the people are starting to drift into the Aviva stadium here in Dublin.

The teams are coming out of the tunnels now and preparing for the anthems. One minute to kick off and the Aviva is full. New Zealand are starting the Haka.

Now the two teams are ready to go. Johnny Sexton pumps this one up into the air now and Zebo grabs it and is down in the 22 metre line. Conor Murry rips out the ball and passes back to Devan Toner and the ball goes to Best, Kearny and Henshaw. Henshaw is going like a bullet up the field and he offloads to Tommy Bowe and its going to be Tommy Bowe under the posts for a try!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!.. What a try for Ireland just six minutes in and Ireland 5 points up. Here comes Sexton with the conversion opportunity and he knocks this one over the post.

Ireland 7-0 New Zealand

They are now starting and the Matt Todd is running after it. But it went too far and Rob Kearny has it now and is running up the field but is taken down and the ball is turned over now and the black tops are charging up the field now and are passing like mad here comes the captain of the New Zealand team and he dives for a try but the referee is going to the TMO and there was a clear forward pass. Okay now Ireland have a put in to a scrum.

30:25

Ireland are after giving away a penalty and Ben Franks puts this one straight over

Now it is one minute until half time and Ireland are at the ten metre line. Murry rips the ball out again and passes to O'Connell, Toner and Bowe. Bowe gives it to Jones who kicks it forward and Zebo runs after it and gets a try!!!!!!!!!!!!

New Zealand 3-14 Ireland

Nathan Harris now with a penalty opportunity and they put it between the posts

New Zealand 6-14 Ireland

HALF TIME

The match is going great for Ireland.

Joe Moody start the match. They pump up the pitch. Will they get a try? And its Ben Franks with a try for New Zealand. Here they get the conversion and they're back in the game.

70:00

New Zealand 13-14 Ireland

Ireland after give away a silly peanalty. Well the Irish players will be very annoyed with that. The pressure is on all Irish supporters if he misses it will be Irelands first win against the all blacks.

Matt Todd puts this one to the side of thepost and Ireland HAVE WON

IRELAND HAVE MADE HISTORY THE FIRST TIME TO BEAT THE ALL BLACKS

80:01

All they have to do is kick out YES

One New Zealand player has just punched the referee. Well that is going to be a red card.

Ireland have won the world cup
